Who Are We...

Macomb County Rotating Emergency Shelter Team (MCREST) is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit in partnership with over 90 Macomb County Congregations .

Over the past 22 years, MCREST has provided safety and basic needs for more than 14,000 adults and 1,300 children. Our increasing number of partner congregations help ensure our doors remain open every day of every year.

Today's Challenges:

- ◇ Educate the community about the invisible faces most affected by homelessness today
- ◇ Create housing and stabilization resources in an economic environment that has left thousands of single women and children without a home of their own.
- ◇ Create affordable housing options to address the growing homeless population
- ◇ Continue raising the standard of care and navigating the stages of change for homeless men, women and children in the great State of Michigan!

Did You Know.....

- ⇒ The average age of a homeless person in Michigan is 9 years old
- ⇒ Over 50% of homeless individuals are women & children
- ⇒ Michigan is home to more than 87,000 homeless men, women and children
- ⇒ Nearly every school district in Macomb County has homeless youth enrolled
- ⇒ YOUR SUPPORT CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
